

Visiting the Leon County Woodville Branch Library

LEROY COLLINS
LEON COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Today, I am going to visit my library.

We can park our car in the parking lot, or ride up on a bike. There are bike racks near the front and back doors of the library.

This is the book drop at my library.

Before I open the doors and walk into the library, I return things I checked out last time into the book drop. They will be checked in later.

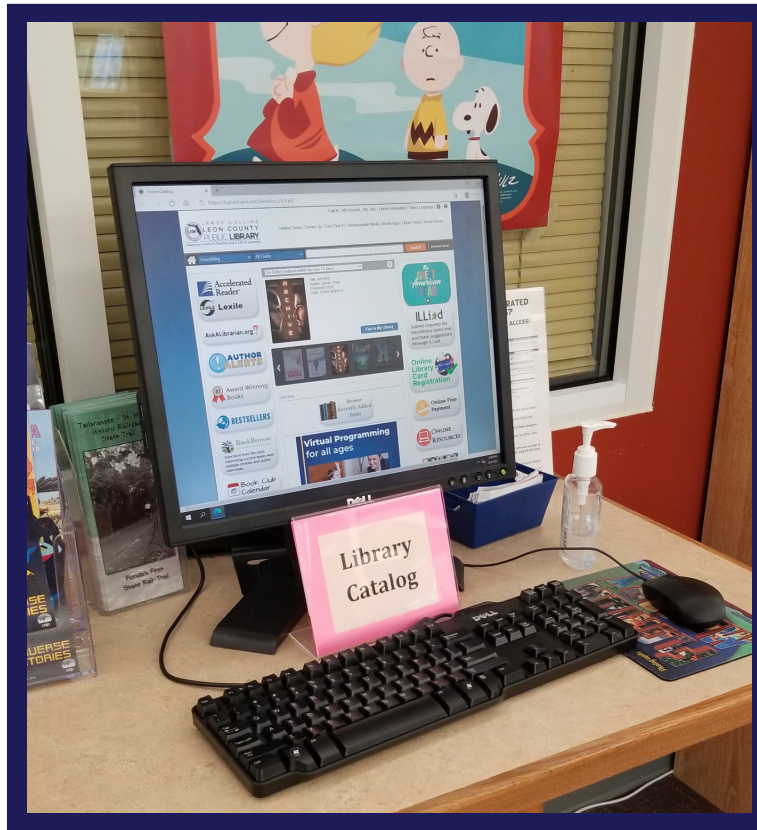

This is the front of my library.

I can open the doors myself or push the silver button
and the door will open automatically.

This is the lobby of my library.

When I enter the library, I walk through the security gates.

My library has computers.

I can use the catalog computer to find books and movies at the library. In the computer lab, I can play games with my grown-up.

This is the restroom at my library.

If the doors aren't propped open, I can push or pull to get to the restrooms and water fountain. There is also a family restroom on the left. I wash my hands when I am finished. I use paper towels to dry my hands.

The children's books are on the low shelves.

There are many books in my library. They are neat and organized and all have a space on the shelf where they belong. My library has rules. I will talk quietly. I will walk. I will stay with my grown-up. I can ask the workers for help if I get separated from my group.

This is the Information Desk at my library.

If I have any questions, I can go to the Information Desk to ask. The library workers can look things up for me and answer my questions. The library workers can also check out my books for me here, if I don't want to use the self-check kiosk.

This is the Self-Check Kiosk at my library.

When I am ready to leave, first I have to check out my items. I can use the self-check kiosk to check out by myself. First I have to scan my library card. I hear lots of beeping sounds when I check out. I can unlock my DVDs with the unlocker nearby. Sometimes I might hear an angry beep that means something didn't check out correctly. I can take it to the Information Desk and the worker will help me.

I am ready to go home.

When I walk through the security gates to go outside, I may see red lights and hear an alarm beep. It is loud, but I don't have to worry. The library workers will help me if that happens.
